

Riteway Linen & the Doctors Goodwill Foundation Medical Fund Assistance Program Guidelines

Riteway Linen Services has created a program with The Doctors Goodwill Foundation to create a Medical Fund Assistance Program that will be dedicated to helping our Friends and Family in the Hospitality Industry that have been stricken with Cancer.

The Mission of The Doctors Goodwill Foundation Medical Fund Assistance Program is to provide funding to assist with medical bills and living expenses through the sale of the “Wrap Out Cancer” SolReya Breast Cancer Head Wrap.

Riteway linens purpose in co-creating this program with the Doctors Goodwill Foundation is to help eliminate the additional stress incurred by medical bills so patients and survivors can focus on their future.

How our Program Works:

For a period of one year Riteway Linen Services will promote the sale of the SolReya Wrap Out Breast Cancer Head Wraps and donate $1.00 of each sale with those proceeds going to the program applicant winner.

Criteria and eligibility:

Applicant must be a survivor or have been diagnosed with Breast Cancer and in current treatment. The program was set up to provide assistance to our friends that work so hard caring for guests in the hospitality industry so the applicant must either be in the hospitality industry or have a direct relative in the Hospitality Industry.
